Once upon a time, there lived a boy named Aladdin. He was a clever boy but he did not like to work!
One day, Aladdin's mother sent him to the market place to look for a job.

At the market Aladdin met a magician who said to him, "If you do as I say, I will reward you with a lot of gold coins and jewellery than you have ever dreamed of!"
Aladdin was excited when he heard this.

1. Who did Aladdin meet ?

2. What did the magician say to Aladdin?

At the market Aladdin met a magician who said to him, "If you do as I say, I will reward you with a lot of gold coins and jewellery than you have ever dreamed of!"

Aladdin was excited when he heard this.

Aladdin followed the magician to a dark cave outside the town. The magician asked Aladdin to go inside the cave and find a lamp which was hidden in there. Then he gave Aladdin a ring and said, "If you are in any trouble, rub this ring and a genie will come to your rescue!"

Inside the cave, Aladdin saw that every corner was filled with gold and treasures. He found the lamp and quickly returned to the entrance of the cave.

The magician told Aladdin to pass the lamp to him, but Aladdin said, "Not so fast, magician, you must help me out of this cave first."

The magician became very angry and pushed a rock over the entrance of the cave, leaving Aladdin and the lamp behind.

Aladdin tried to move the rock all by himself, but it was too big and heavy. "Oh no! I am trapped in the cave!" he cried.

Suddenly, he remembered the magic ring. He rubbed it with the palm of his hand. To his surprise, a genie appeared before him and in a powerful voice said, "Master, I am the Genie of the Ring, how can I help you?"

Aladdin was a little frightened at first but he soon found the courage to ask, "Could you please send me back to my house?" In no time at all Aladdin was back home.
